Greatest Glasgow Awards has announced today the winners for the category of 2019 Best Glasgow Romantic Hotels.

The research has involved staff of Greatest Glasgow reviewing 33 locations and using 16 criteria to find the excellence and award the winners.

Located in Glasgow's vibrant city centre, the 5-star Blythswood Square Hotel dates from 1823, offering classic architecture and modern touches, and was once the home of the Royal Scottish Automobile Club.

Set in a contemporary grey brick building with black-glass windows, Dakota Deluxe Glasgow is a upmarket imposing hotel with warmly decorated rooms and suites.

With an enviable reputation for service and style, One Devonshire Gardens a Hotel du Vin is a sophisticated boutique situated in a tree-lined Victorian building in the vibrant West End neighbourhood of Glasgow.

Located in cosmopolitan Glasgow's city centre, The Principal Grand Central Hotel is one of the most prestigious buildings in the area and was completed in 1883.

Malmaison Glasgow is a former Greek Orthodox Church in the centre of Glasgow, an excellent base from which to explore the top quality shopping, art galleries and theatres.

Finally, Radisson Blue Glasgow, opened in 2003, is a contemporary city-centre hotel with 5-star rating is a striking building, known for its sculptural copper wall.

Greatest Glasgow Awards is the organisation which searches, finds and recognises the excellence in Greater Glasgow. Our mission is to show to show Glaswegian and the rest of the world the wonders of our incredible city.
